 Invite you to attend our…
 Joint Meeting and Luncheon Featuring Chas Jordan
 The APWA State Chapter Chair

- Chas will discuss the benefits of becoming an APWA member. He will also discuss the National Conference and chapter goals for the upcoming year.

Chas Jordan currently serves the City of Largo, Florida as it’s Assistant Public Works Director and Facilities Manager. Chas has served the City of Largo since 2006, during which time he led the Public Works Department through its initial accreditation and first re-accreditation efforts. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Political Science and a Master of Public Administration Degree from the University of North Florida in Jacksonville. He has served in a number of roles with APWA both nationally and locally including the Emerging Leaders Academy Class of 2007-2008 (Class I), chairman of the national APWA Diversity Committee, and was the founding chairman of the APWA steering committee organizing it’s Young Professionals Network. Currently, Chas serves as a member of the Leadership & Management technical committee.

Here in Florida, Chas has been responsible for all of the Chapter’s communications and marketing efforts, and has served as the West Coast Branch (Tampa Bay area) Chairman. He has received a number of awards including the Young Leader of the Year award from the Florida Chapter in 2011, the West Coast Branch's Timothy Goodrow Member of the Year Award, and the Florida Chapter’s Ben Pratt Award, both in 2012. In 2013, Chas was named the national Young Leader Award winner and received the Florida Chapter President's Award. Chas is also a commissioned Kentucky Colonel, and in his free time enjoys kayaking, cycling, watching movies or baseball, and spending time with his family. In 2016, Chas was elected President of the APWA Florida Chapter and now leads an organization of over 1,400 public works professionals throughout the State of Florida.
